The Girl Who Disappeared

8 0 1

Chapter 1 by Unicorn-With-A-Mustache

As I was walking home I noticed a suspicious, creepy noise from the house a few doors down. I just ignored the noise and kept walking home. When I got home home I gently opened the door. My mom was cooking a delicious meal of roast and stew. It was the best dinner I ever had. After dinner I went over to my friends house and we played volleyball outside. I kept hearing that mysterious noise coming from the house. I told my friend I was going home because the noise was getting really frightening. I thought it was more safe if I went home. When I got home I looked up the address. It said a young girl lived there, but she disappeared. After a year her parents moved away. I searched the girls name and all I found was a webpage of the girls life. Apparently, she disappeared during the night. I wonder why or how? The next morning when I walked to school it was cold outside and silent. I wonder why it was so quiet and still.
